however—and for the period beginning April 15, 1670, and ending March incorporated from Henige's "Statutes at large of Virginia," that give certain proceedings more clearly than do the original records themselves in their present mutilated condition. —Prof. p. v.

With reproduction of t.p. of the 1st edition, Bracciano, A. Fel, 1624: Vita di Cola di Rienzo, tribuno del popolo romano. Scritta in lingua volgare romana di quella età da Tomaso Fioritocca ...

The Vita di Cola di Rienzo is a combination of chapters 15, 23, 26 and 27 of an anonymous chronicle of the 14th century composed in the dialect of the Roman territory (dialecto romanesco) The chronicle exists in numerous manuscripts, all of which appear to be more or less imperfect and incoherent. In the greater part of the manuscripts the title reads "Historia di Cola di Rienzo" or "Vita di Cola di Rienzo," although only four chapters of it deal with Rienzo. Other manuscripts have title: Chronica delle cose fatte in Italia. Chronica di Roma. Historie volgare in lingua romana antica, etc. The chronicle was published by Muratori with title: Historie romane fragmenta ab anno Christi MCCXXXV usque ad MCCXLV in his Antiquitates Italicae medii aevi, t. iii (Milano, 1740). In the 1st edition of the Vita the authorship is wrongly ascribed to Tommaso Fioritocca, whose name appears in some manuscripts. The edition of the 4 chapters as so many "libri" in the 1st edition has been retained in the present edition.

(Card 3)
